Mark Learners Complete for a Section

Body

Each section can have one or more delivery methods: Instructor Led Training (ILT), Canvas, or Other Online Source. The delivery method(s) for a section can be configured by the Training Admin to have different completion methods:

- ILT: Instructor reports completion, Learner reports completion, Completion not required
- Canvas: Canvas reports completion, Instructor reports completion, Learner reports completion, Completion not required
- Other Online Source: Instructor reports completion, Learner reports completion, Completion not required

For each delivery method that is set to Instructor reports completion, a corresponding column of checkboxes will be on the section roster for the instructor to report the learner's completion.

Scenario 1: A section with two delivery methods, only one is marked complete by the instructor

This section is a blended course, and has two delivery methods. There is an Instructor Led portion and the instructor marks completion, and there is a Canvas portion that is configured to report the learner's completion when they have finished all of the required modules.
